A big country 'Hello' from all at Sculpture on the Farm Dungog!

As our concerns are many, especially for those currently in lock down, and particularly for our Dungog and Hunter Valley communities, the Sculpture on the Farm Committee has decided to cancel Sculpture on the Farm Dungog 2021 as planned to be held in Dungog and on the farm at Fosterton.

We hope you will embrace this decision with the optimism that we feel, as we transform Sculpture on the Farm DUNGOG into Sculpture on the Farm 2021 exclusively ONLINE.

Are you feeling isolated too?

Sculpture on the Farm 2021 exclusively ONLINE

We will ensure that no matter what your circumstances, no matter where you are, you will be able to view all 150 exhibits by way of our enhanced colour catalogue which will go ONLINE mid-September 2021.

Our curatorial team, ably assisted by Helene Leane of Gallery on Dowling in Dungog, has selected some 150 sculptures (75 Outdoor and 75 Indoor) by 73 sculptors for inclusion in Sculpture on the Farm 2021 ONLINE exhibition.

With thanks to our sculptors in sharing our message ...

Seeking the elusive... Reaching for the sky ... Chasing opportunity ... Dreaming the exotic Telling everyone ...

ONLINE CATALOGUE LIVE MID SEPTEMBER Buy works directly ONLINE from 1 October

Keep an eye out for our Instagram and Facebook posts which will transport you to the farm at Fosterton and into the Dungog region over the next couple of months.

> In short, we will bring country life and Sculpture on the Farm 2021 exclusively ONLINE to you via your computer and phone.

Of course, such an exhibition during these challenging times would not be possible without the efforts of all our fabulous Australian sculptors. We want to thank all these wonderful people for their continuing support and encourage everyone who views their work to support them by taking advantage of our new ONLINE sales site from 1 October

PRIZES and SALES ONLINE

We are thrilled to announce that the two Acquisitive Prizes to be donated by Sculpture on the Farm to the Dungog Common and Dungog Shire Council for public display, will launch the SALES ONLINE on Friday 1 October. The announcement of the additional 7 Sculpture on the Farm Prizes will be announced progressively throughout the next week. We are so grateful to our judges Gerry Bobsien and Steven Alderton who will make it possible for us to award $34,300 of prizes.

Thank you for your interest and your ongoing support. Thank you so much to our generous donors, sponsors, advertisers and of course our volunteers. Your generosity has made it possible for Sculpture on the Farm to support our sculptors through the awarding of prizes and the development of the Sculpture on the Farm 2021 ONLINE exhibition.

Dungog awaits when the time is right!

We are confident the Sculpture on the Farm 2021 ONLINE experience will lift your spirits and show what is possible even in these difficult times. You can revisit the exclusively ONLINE exhibition and share it with friends, as many times as you like.

With best wishes

Philippa and the Sculpture on the Farm Team

Our thanks for the generous support of our sponsors and advertisers for the Sculpture on the Farm 2021 exclusively ONLINE exhibition
